6. FAMILY HISTORY – GENERAL INFORMATION

Your ability to describe your family history is critical and your success in gaining your success is gaining enrolment application approval. To help you document your family history, forms entitled “my father’s/mother’s Sahtú ancestry” are included with this application. These forms show each of your direct blood ancestors and provide a corresponding number for each ancestor, follow the instructions below to describe your ancestry.

Family History Chart: Using the forms “my father’s/mother’s Sahtú ancestry” list your direct biological ancestors related to a Sahtu Dené or Sahtú Metis person who resided in, or used and occupied, the settlement area on or before December 31, 1921. For example, if you are relying on your biological father’s father’s father (great grandfather #6a on the form) to support your application, you will need list each of the following: your great grandfather (#6a), your grandfather (#4a) and your father (#2a). Similarly include other ancestors as needed. You do not need to identify all those people listed in the chart below: however, you must identify your ancestor who was living in, using or occupying the settlement area on or before 1921 and show your direct biological relationship to this person.
